Yes, that's a 12 lb bag of pinto beans. They are inexpensive, keep forever and I have dozens of recipes where they take front and center importance. I even make my own refried beans for TexMex recipes.

One of my favorites starts with two cups of beans soaked overnight. Chopped sweet onion into the bottom of a crock pot along with 1/4 cup garlic bits. Drain/rinse the beans and then into the pot. Next about a cup of chopped sweet peppers. Can of diced tomatoes. Chopped carrots and celery including the leaves of both. Two cups chicken broth. Turn pot to high. After about 2-3 hours fry meat...I use venison, hamburger and/or sweet Italian sausage. All three at once works. I fry chopped bacon for the grease when frying the meat; add the bacon to the pot too. Layer the meat on top right from the pan. It's done when the beans are soft and chewy. Freezes well without losing flavor.

All the news I see fit to print.

Freedom of the press belongs to those who own one.

News reports you probably haven't seen that make you ask

WWTD: (What Would Trump Do):

Groups of looters hit two Best Buy stores in Minnesota's Twin Cities just after 8:00 p.m. on Black Friday, according to reports.

One of the looting frenzies occurred Black Friday at the Burnsville Best Buy, where 20-30 suspects rushed the store in a flash mob-style robbery. The second looting incident took place at the Maplewood Best Buy, where police say a group of ten to twelve looters, comprised of adults and juveniles, stole "high value items," . June 3, 2020 CEO Corie Barry said "We are...coming face-to-face with the long-term effects of racial injustice. Watching tens of thousands take to the streets to speak out against fear and inhumanity is, on one hand, inspiring for the commitment it represents...." Guess there are 100%

George Floyd discounts now at Best Buy? AND: Best Buy offered "mental health resources" and "counseling services" to its employees after the Kyle Rittenhouse verdict was announced. Maybe they should issue guns to employees?

The United Nations is handing out free debit cards to illegal aliens looking to cross the U.S border, according to Todd Bensman, a Fellow at the Center for Immigration Studies.

Bensman traveled to Mexico and reported that tens of thousands of illegal aliens are now heading to the border...22% paid by US taxpayers.

Between car thefts and carjackings (robbery with car theft), there have been a total of 3879 cars taken, almost 1% of the population of Minneapolis have had their car taken in 2021, with 4035 car thefts/carjackings in 2020.

China and India will receive a $2 billion climate aid windfall despite stopping a COP26 deal on reducing reliance on coal power. Richer countries agreed to double funding for developing nations to prepare for global warming. Despite having two of the fastest growing economies in the world, the UN designates China and India as 'developing states'.

Bon Mots
I'm the same age as old people. (That's weird!)

OTA (over the air) is free TV with a pair of rabbit ears. There is couple dozen stations available here. Given the commercials on them, I really think advertising has gone into the toilet as well. Most of the ads are produced with a sixth grade education audience in mind. You may be surprised that a 30 second TV ad on local TV costs only $35...but then the production costs are into four figures. Cable TV is still asking high prices...for reports like this:

CNN reports Waukesha will hold a moment of silence today, marking one week since a car drove through a city Christmas parade, killing six people and injuring scores of others. I don't think Tesla would pay them to advertise his self driving feature?

If you subscribe to any cable company...you are supporting CNN. That's why they get away with this crap. They don't care about their audience. They just care about the deals they make with cable companies and airports.

For those of you missing Rush Limbaugh...that's what he said about open borders. The following is what he said about the "pandemic":

"This is a hyped, panic-filled version. It's exactly how the media deals with these things to create audience, readership, interest, clicks, what have you. The survival rate of this is 98%! You have to read very deeply to find that number, that 2% of the people get the coronavirus die. That's less than the flu, folks. That is a far lower death statistic than any form of influenza, which is an annual thing that everybody gets shots for. There's nothing unusual about the coronavirus. In fact, coronavirus is not something new. There are all kinds of viruses that have that name". (Rush Limbaugh 2.24.2020)

In case you're wondering about those face masks.
Made in China.

Kyle's attorney has filed a $60 million lawsuit against The View "ladies". Joe Biden will also be sued because he called Kyle a murderer before Joe was elected president so he can't hide behind the office.

Lots more $$$ to come.

Jussie Smollett will finally face a judge and jury in the trial for his hate crime hoax, years after a prosecutor with connections to George Soros dropped charges against the disgraced Hollywood star. Smollett has been charged with six felony counts related to filing a false police report in 2019 claiming that Trump supporters physically assaulted him including putting a noose around his neck and pouring bleach on him — in what he described as a racist and homophobic attack. The former Empire star even claimed his assailants said, "This is MAGA country" as they proceeded to assault him. But the entire event was eventually revealed to be a hoax that the actor allegedly staged and paid for as a way to boost his Hollywood career. His bogus story was carried by all the Lame Stream Media...wonder if they will carry the trial? Nah!

Roe vs Wade is being (finally) examined by SCOTUS. It's a state issue, not federal so the judges will have to come up with an interpretation of the Constitution to keep it federal which I don't believe they can.

Mal Mots

Your eyesight may weaken as you get older but you can see through people's bullshit better.

You're welcome.

Speaking of bullshit:

Joe Biden nominated a second lesbian, Alison Nathan, to serve on the Second Circuit U.S. Court of Appeals. According to The Dallas Voice, Nathan is presiding over the trial of sexual predator Jeffrey Epstein's associate, Ghislaine Maxwell, on sex trafficking charges. Reuters reported that the trial requires Nathan to question more than 200 prospective jurors. She has blocked press access to evidence because it is "sensational and impure". Duh?

If that doesn't make you wonder...how about this:

Fired FBI Director Jim Comey's Daughter is One of Three Lead Prosecutors Against Jeffrey Epstein Confidante, Ghislaine Maxwell. Ms. Comey was also a member of the team that was involved with the "lost" video of Epstein during his first 'suicide' attempt in jail.

Until next week...
